Changes to training fees, delivery, and payment options

Due to unforeseen circumstances, changes may occur to the training program's format, and therefore fees and payment options. Body of Wonder will publish on the websites, and also update and inform registrants and program participants of changes to the fees and payment options required to mirror the training programs' new format.

Refund & Cancellation Policy

All cancellations on the part of the program participant must be in writing. The deposit and tuition is non-refundable, and the full amount is owed, as per the commitment and agreement to complete the entire training. In the event of life threatening illness, death, family, environmental or societal emergencies the deposit and tuition can be applied to a new training program in the future without penalty.

If the training is canceled by Body of Wonder, the deposit and tuition amount can be put towards a training in the future or a full refund can be given for the seminars that have not been taken, if they have been paid for ahead. No liability shall be held to any other party or for any other costs incurred by the participant.

Body of Wonder reserves the right to alter dates, staffing, or venues due to unforeseen or exceptional circumstances. There will be no liability to any party for costs to the participant that may be incurred due to these changes.
